

One event, a complete content box

Eventshoot.nl delivers 25+ ready-to-use items that your marketer can work with for months, photographed and filmed by people, delivered within 48 hours. Your marketer needs something new every week for LinkedIn, the website, and the newsletter. Your event is a goldmine of content. We attend your conference, member day, or company meeting with a sharp eye for what presents itself and the initiative to seek out speakers and moments — not to wait. The result: a content box of 25+ ready-to-use items, ready for publication.

People capture people.

Eventshoot.nl does not use AI-generated video or stock footage. Everything you receive is genuinely recorded at your event, with real people and professional equipment. For post-production — such as selection, transcription, and subtitling — we use AI. For the images themselves, people.

More than a camera

- ▶ Coordinating in advance with the venue and technical team — backdrop, video wall, stage lighting, suitable interview location. Slides with a dark background instead of the other way around: better for participants and better for the image.
- ▶ On-the-fly coordination on the day, with speakers, participants, technicians, and the organization. Being polite and striking the right tone gets a lot done, even last-minute.
- ▶ Graphic designer by trade — composition, color, and typography are built into what you receive. We always work within your house style, not ours. No coincidence, just difference.

What you get

- ▶ A complete content box of 25+ items, with photos, aftermovies, interview snippets, quote cards, and atmosphere shots — all ready to publish.
- ▶ In the right formats: horizontal for website, 4:5 for LinkedIn and/or vertical.
- ▶ Files your marketer can use immediately — no additional post-production, no adding subtitles, no more formatting.
- ▶ Delivery within 48 hours ready for the first post. With Highlight, even within 24 hours.
- ▶ Months of visibility from one production day — your event keeps working after the room is empty.

For whom

Eventshoot.nl works best when your organization has someone who also rolls out the content a marketer, communications employee, or social media manager. We produce, they publish. Our ideal clients:

- ▶ Industry associations with an annual congress, member day, or trade day.
- ▶ Event agencies and DMCs looking for a permanent content partner for their client events.
- ▶ Hotels with conference facilities that build preferred-vendor relationships with their guests.
- ▶ Marketing and communications agencies that prefer to outsource production to a specialist.
- ▶ Companies with their own annual knowledge events or user conferences.
